County sets free junk boat turn-in for April

Codie Vasquez and Halee Watkins from the regional CASA accepted a proclamation from Orange County Commissioners Court declaring April as Child Abuse Awareness and Prevention Month. The group for volunteers to help abused children go through the legal system during the process to separate them from abusive family, has its regional offices in Orange.

Orange County's free vessel turn-in program to take in junked boats is set this year for April. County Judge John Gothia said the program helps keep them from being dumped in the waterways.

The program, sponsored by the Texas General Land Office, allows owners to turn in boats and trailers for proper disposal. The fuel, oil, and batteries are removed and Texas Parks and Wildlife Department will verify the ownership to clear them.

The dates will be April 6, 9, 11, and 13 at the Citizen Collection Station off FM 1442 by the County Expo Center. The times will be from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Commissioners Tuesday officially set the times and dates during a court meeting. Precinct 1 Commissioner Johnny Trahan was absent because of recent surgery. John Gothia said the commissioner was doing well and had planned to attend, but had a follow-up doctor's appointment.

Mosquito Control Director Patrick Beebe got permission to spend more money to help in the effort to stop mosquitoes.

He also warned that he may need more money because he has already spent 50 percent of his operating budget with six and half months left in the budget year. Those months include the summer, when the pests are usually worse.

Beebe said more spraying has had to be done this winter than is average.

The court approved him taking $10,500 from his contingency fund to go toward the price of a new pickup truck. Judge Gothia said the county was lucky to find one available. The pickup will replace one that is now 18 years old. The smaller pickup model is easier to use on narrow county roads in the dark where it is difficult to turn larger

Fans of 'Gatemouth' working to replace gravestone

MARGARET TOAL For The Record

Fourteen years ago, a grave marker carved with a Fender guitar was placed at the grave site of Grammy-winning singer and musician Clarence "Gatemouth" Brown, who is buried in Orange's Hollywood Cemetery.

But flood waters continually damaged the marker, which included his quote engraved "I won't limit myself to one type of music. There's a lot of universe out there, and what is the universe? Music."

Now, a fan and family friend has started an online fundraiser for money for a new marker.

Stephen "Doc" Watson earlier this month posted on Facebook a link to givensendgo.com hoping to raise money for a new marker. He has permission from Brown's daughter, Renee, who lives in New Orleans. The donation site is GiveSendGo.com.

The hometown son was featured at the first Art in the Park festival, which was held in the fall of 2003. Orange Mayor Brown Claybar gave him a proclamation and the key to the city.

In 2021, Lamar State College-Orange built and dedicated the "Gatemouth" Brown Plaza at the campus in downtown.

In addition, a Texas Historical Marker was dedicated to Brown in Hollywood Cemetery in 2012.

Brown was born in 1924 on the Louisiana side of the river in Vinton, but was raised in Orange, learning to play several musical instruments, including guitar, mandolin, and fiddle. His father was a musician and worked for a railroad. Brother Bobby Brown, who still lives in Orange, once recalled the father and son used to play for tips on Saturdays outside the Holland Hotel in Orange in the 1930s when downtown was busy.

Clarence Brown served in the army in World War II. His biography tells that he was discovered in 1947 at the Bronze Peacock Club in Houston when T-Bone Walker became ill. Brown got his guitar and wowed the crowd with his playing the original "Gatemouth Boogie."

He was pegged as playing the blues, however his musical style combined Cajun, jazz, country, R&B, and blues. He could move from smooth Duke Ellington to the blues and on to

Lions dub rain pattern 'El Carnivale'

MARGARET TOAL For The Record

Everyone has heard of the El Nino and La Nina weather patterns. The new pattern is "El Carnivale." It's guaranteed to bring on rain.

That's the latest joke from the Orange Lions Club as the community crosses its fingers for good weather during the last four days of this year's charity carnival. But yikes. Rain is in the forecast.

The 83rd annual Lions Charity Carnival in Orange will open this Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday at Lions Park in Orange.

For years, the carnival was held in the fall, but hurricanes and tropical storms beginning in 2005 ruined the fall locally for a number of years. The Lions Club then moved the carnival to the spring. Heavy spring rains and wet grounds in have brought the Lions to cancel days of the carnival.

Last year, Lions sold commemorative umbrellas linking the event to rain.

This past week, the club lucked out for Saturday. Thunderstorms Friday night led to the cancellation that night, however the rainfall expected throughout Saturday mostly moved to the north. The carnival went on Saturday with volunteers and guests wearing boots to protect against the mud.

The carnival will be open on Wednesday and Thursday from 6:30 to 10 p.m., and from 6:30 to 11 p.m. on Friday and Saturday. Entry is $3 for adults, $2 for ages 13-17, and free to children. This year, only cash will be accepted and a local credit union has donated ATMs placed on the grounds.

The carnival began in the 1930s with only the Orange Lions Club and as the county grew with more Lions clubs forming, the other groups joined in. The Orange Lions own and operate the carnival rides, which are now vintage, including a 1950s carousel. The 1930s Ferris wheel was destroyed by Hurricane Rita. Rides are

Texas Labor Market Growth Continues into 2024

Staff Report For The Record

AUSTIN-- The Texas labor market marked record-breaking growth with January over-the-month increases in jobs, Texans employed, and the civilian labor force. Following annual benchmarking revisions to the 2023 labor market data, Texas' seasonally adjusted job count increased by 18,900 in January to reach 14,053,400 jobs and achieve growth in 43 of the last 45 months.

According to the revised data, Texas' total nonfarm employment grew by 263,900 jobs from January 2023 to January 2024, which represents a 1.9 percent annual growth rate.

The Texas seasonally adjusted civilian labor force grew over the month by 12,800 people to reach 15,143,400 in January. This included the addition of 16,000 employed Texans over the month. The seasonally adjusted unemployment rate registered at 3.9 percent for the eighth consecutive month, based on the revised 2023 data, while dropping from the January 2023 rate of 4.1 percent.

"Texas continues to lead the nation in job growth and economic stability," said TWC Chairman Bryan Daniel. "As we make our way into 2024, the Texas labor force continues to up-skill and become the workforce of tomorrow."

Over the month in January, five of 11 major industries in Texas achieved series highs. The most significant private sector growth occurred in Other Services with 5,000 jobs added, while 4,400 jobs were added in Professional and Business Services. Another 4,000 jobs were added in Private Education and Health Services over the month. In addition, Construction industry annual growth outpaced the nation by 0.3 percentage points in January.

"TWC helps Texans get the training, guidance, and support they need to continue our industry growth and remain the second largest economy in the U.S.," said TWC Commissioner Representing Labor Alberto Treviño III. "The Texas Workforce System continues to assist more than 15.1 million people in the civilian labor force with employment and long-term careers."

The Midland Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA)

maintained the lowest unemployment rate among Texas MSAs with a not seasonally adjusted rate of 2.6

MIXED EMOTIONS

Sen. Carl Parker For The Record

As a long time, Democrat, I must admit I have mixed emotions about the way Dade Phelan is being treated by the Republican Party. While I am pleased to see the Republicans are so disorganized, I am convinced that having the Speaker of the House representing this area is a great benefit to us all.

There is a time and place for an area to benefit. The time is while the Legislature is in session. The place is various committees of the House and Senate. As an example, had I not been chair of the Senate Education Committee, there would not have been a Lamar at Orange or Port Arthur. A new nursing program would not have been created.

People of District 21: would it not be foolish to dump an honest, young man because he allowed the House to impeach our attorney general who has been sued by his employees and is under indictment? Or that vouchers did not get passed by the House?

Think before you vote!!

playing Orange Blossom Special on fiddle. He became great friends with country legend Roy Clark and the two cut an album together. Brown also regularly appeared with Clark on "Hee Haw."

He won the 1983 Grammy for Best Traditional Blues Album for "Alright Again!"

Brown traveled the world playing his unique music and joining in with some of the biggest legends in rock, jazz, and country music. He developed a fashion of wearing black cowboy style clothes with black cowboy boots and black cowboy hat. He was called "The Guitar Slinger." He drove a big, black Cadillac and parked it near the stage at the first Art in the Park.

In 2004, Rolling Stone Magazine reported he had lung cancer and was not going to take any treatments for it. He continued playing, carrying an oxygen tank to performances.

He had settled along the water in Slidell, Louisiana, outside of New Orleans. As Hurricane Rita approached, relatives begged him to evacuate. He came to Orange to stay with relatives, and soon went to a Port Arthur Hospital.

News reports said he left the hospital without medical clearance. He died in Orange at his grandniece's house on September 10, 2005. The death made national news and his funeral here the next week drew news media from New Orleans, Houston, Austin, and New York, in addition to local ones. Floral arrangements came from musicians. Guitarist and singer Jimmy Vaughn attended.

Brown was buried in Hollywood Cemetery on September 17, 2005. On September 24th, Hurricane Rita devastated Orange County and blew down some of the old trees in the cemetery.

It wasn't the first of the storms that have affected Gatemouth Brown.

Hollywood Cemetery dates back to at least the 1860s and was in a low-lying area along Cooper's Gully, which runs into the nearby Sabine River. Most of the graves in the cemetery are in the coastal style of concrete vaults that are partly above ground.

Hurricane Ike in September 2008 sent a coastal surge up the Sabine River and flooded the southern part of the county. The strong waters forced off the concrete lids of the vaults. Come 50 caskets floated out, with some traveling down Sim-

Brown's casket was among them. Authorities said it was pushed against a fence and never left the cemetery. He was quickly identified and reinterred.

His daughter Renee placed artist-designed tombstone at the grave in the spring of 2010.

The cemetery flooded again with the record-breaking Sabine River Flood of March 2016, and then again, with Hurricane Harvey in August 2017. The pressure of the waters broke the marker. Though volunteers made repairs, the sculptured marker has continued to break, especially after two more hurricanes in 2020.

"The Texas labor market is continuing its forward momentum with 14,000 private sector jobs added over the month in January," said TWC Commissioner Representing Employers Joe Esparza. "Texas employers are creating thousands of opportunities for Texans, and TWC has the resources they need to train and upskill spray trucks around.

Beebe reported he has received the budgeted forklifts and lowboy trailer to transport them. The forklifts are used to move materials and barrels around at the county's hangar for the spray plane and at the center where the spray trucks are. The county airport will also have access to a forklift.

The vote for Beebe's request was unanimous and Judge Gothia joked "I don't think anyone wants to go on record being against anything for mosquito control."

The court also approved the preliminary infrastructure development plan for the Orange Shadee Mobile Home Park. County Engineer Corey Oldbury said commissioners have already approved the plans for the adjacent park for recreational vehicles. The new part will be for rental spaces for manufactured homes.

The development is off Highway 62 south of Interstate 10. Oldbury said the Orange County Drainage District has given the okay for the drainage plans for both sections.

Oldbury also talked to commissioners about applying for the net Safe Streets and Roads grants available. He thinks the county could qualify for the program, which could pay 80 percent of fixing some of the county roads already targeted for repairs.

The court passed a resolution making April Child Abuse Awareness and Prevention Month. Codie Vasquez with the Sabine Neches Region CASA, Court Appointed Special Advocates, said Texas had 173 children die from abuse in 2023, with one in Orange County.

SUPREME COURT PERMITS TEXAS TO ARREST PEOPLE WHO ILLEGALLY CROSS THE BORDER AS LEGAL CLASH CONTINUES

The U.S. Supreme Court on Tuesday allowed Texas to start enforcing Senate Bill 4, a new state law that allows Texas police to charge people with illegally entering the state from other countries. The federal government argued that the law is unconstitutional because enforcing immigration laws is a federal responsibility. The legal case is far from over. The case will now go back to the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals. SB 4 seeks to make illegally crossing the border a Class B misdemeanor, carrying a punishment of up to six months in jail. Repeat offenders could face a second-degree felony with a punishment of two to 20 years in prison. Earlier this year, a bipartisan immigration bill failed in the U.S. Senate after Trump told Republicans not to vote for it, in part so that he could campaign on the issue. The bill proposed overhauling the nation's asylum system to provide quicker decisions on asylum requests and allow presidents to order immediate deportation of migrants at the border when immigration agents get overwhelmed. Trump has said that immigration enforcement will be among his priorities if he wins back the presidency in November. During his presidency he was heavily criticized for a "zero tolerance" policy that required Border Patrol agents to separate children from their parents and using racist language to describe migrants.

CRUZ FACES TOUGH FOE IN ALLRED

According to Jeremy Wallace, Texas political writer, U.S. Sen. Ted Cruz's campaign is warning donors that he's already tied with Colin Allred and bracing for a tougher 2024 reelection campaign than GOP voters might expect. Cruz has been telling Republicans for weeks that they can't take things for granted in Texas anymore. "I will say, my race here in Texas is a battleground race," Cruz told Fox News host Maria Bartiromo last month. "My last race I won by less than three points because I'm the Democrats' top target." Allred has been telling supporters he has a real shot at toppling Cruz based on limited early public polling and fundraising data. The congressman acknowledged being the underdog but pointed to his history of knocking off veteran U.S. Rep. Pete Sessions, a Republican, in 2018, but his upbringing as the child of a single mother and making the NFL as a linebacker despite being undrafted. The early polling is mixed. A University of Texas at Tyler survey released two weeks ago showed Allred and Cruz tied, but nearly 20 percent of voters were undecided. Allred's already shown one big difference from O'Rourke's campaign in 2018: he's hitting Cruz early and often. When O'Rourke started his 2018 campaign, he intentionally refused to hit Cruz directly, insisting his campaign was rising above politics. Allred spent much of his victory speech in the March 5 Democratic primary blasting Cruz on several fronts, most notably his 2021 decision to vacation in Cancun while winter storms left hundreds of Texans dead and millions more without power. "When 30 million Texans were freezing in the dark, he decided to go to Cancun," Allred said. Cruz apologized in several interviews after that trip.

SCARBOROUGH SERVICES TO BE HELD

LONGTIME POLICE OFFICER SAMMY MILLS REMEMBERED

We were sorry to hear about the death of Sammy Burnell Mills, age 64, who passed away February 18. Sammy was a retired deputy sheriff. I go back many years with his family, even before Sammy was born. I was a personal friend of his grandfather Burnell Luther, one of the most highly respected men I've ever known. For years they lived on Hwy. 62, in the Win-free Community. His mom Arlene, Burnell's daughter, is a beautiful, kind lady who for several years helped us here at The Record where she ran a delivery route until her husband Lee got sick. She loved the job which she treated as a hobby and we always respected her loyalty. It is so sad that Sammy left us at such a young age. This good man is sure to be in Heaven. A celebration of life for Sammy will be held at the Orange Train Depot Museum, Sunday, March 24, at 2 p.m. Please see obituary.

TURNING BACK THE HANDS OF TIME 10 Years Ago-2014

At 86, Gov. Edwards launches comeback. Edwin W. Edwards, the 86-year-old former four term governor of Louisiana, announced this week that he was running for congress of the Baton Rouge District as a Democrat. For many years the Feds tried to put Edwin in jail but each time they failed. Finally, he was charge with racketeering and extortion and sentenced to 10 years. He completed eight years of the term. His son also served time in the joint. While in prison, Edwin gave his beautiful wife a divorce. He said it was the right thing to do. She was much too young and pretty to just sit around waiting for him to get out of jail. Since his release, he has gotten married, fathered a child and starred on a reality television show. Edwards, known for his wit, listed potential obstacles to a race including his age, his criminal record and Louisiana moving so far to the right. Then he explained why that wouldn't keep him from a new career in Washington. "I acknowledge there are good reasons why I should not run but there are better reasons why I should." An old Cajun said to me, "Edwin him, he took his medicine and served his time like da man he is. Many of dem no good politicians have stole a lot more dan Edwin and got away wit it." ****I understand that Dist. Bridge City coach Troy Woodall retires. All but six weeks of his 40 years in coaching were spent at one school district, BCISD. Woodall said, "I graduated from East Texas Baptist College on a Friday and was coaching Monday morning. Glen Pearson had been my wife Brenda's basketball coach at Bridge City and he knew of a temporary opening at Stark High in Orange. In the middle of a spring training session, Bridge City coach Chief Wilson, walked up, tapped me on the shoulder and announced that he was adding me to his expanded staff at Bridge City." For the next 40 years, Woodall remained a Cardinal. He was there during the Steve Worster/Chief Wilson/Cardinal glory days and state championship. (Editor's note: for all those years I've known Troy he's been a prince of a guy. He has caught a million pounds of fish. I still think he's a great guy and still active.****Sherlock Breaux judges Rosalie Clark's baked fish, stuffed with small shrimp, as the best eats at the St. Joseph Altar.

45 Years Ago-1979

For 68 years, Orange master tailor, Clayton L. Meredith, known professionally around the United States as "Meredith the Tailor" has been practicing his trade. He and wife Grace are the parents of two daughters, Mrs. Laverne Parish and Mrs. Feagin Windham. Meredith the Tailor provides everything expected of a modern tailor. Fabric for custom-made suits cost as much as $58 per yard and a suit requires from three and a half to three and five eights yards of material plus 32 to 36 hours of labor. His customers have included Gov. Huey Long, Pres. Harry Truman and Gov. Jim Ferguson. His most notable client was Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink, famed operatic contralto. (Editor's note: When Mr. Meredith passed away he was Orange's last master tailor that made everything from scratch to custom fit. He used imported fabric from around the world. Betty Jo Spence recorded his life in a story written for the Opportunity Valley News in 1979.)****Eight Bridge City guys compete for the title of Miss Community Center. Miss La- Donna won the competition and swimsuit. Richard "Deanna" Solomon was usherette. W.T. Oliver was master of ceremonies.

C'EST TOUT COMMENTARY

Last week Lamar Orange's president Dr. Tom Johnson spent time in Washington hustling funds for his college. What I had not realized is that all four Lamar campuses are in one congressional district. Randy Weber is our U.S. Congressman. It's easier for the schools to work with one representative rather than two or three.****Speaking of Lamar, I got a call from Sen. Carl Parker, the granddaddy of Port Arthur and Orange campuses being in the Texas State systems and not junior colleges with a tax base. Anyway, Parker's heart valve replacement has been delayed but not for long. I enjoyed talking about the old political times. Not many of us old political grinders left. We got a lot done in our time. Think how much we could have accomplished if the speaker of the house would have been in our district. With Dade Phelan as speaker and Robert Nichols as our state senator our district is no longer being treated like an unwanted stepchild.****We had a nice visit with Charlie Warner Saturday. We have known him since he was in short pants. He has an interesting life story. By the way, he and his wife Karen will be eclipse watching April 8 in Wimberley, Texas with her sister and brother-in-law, Matt and Dana Portacci. The former Bridge City folks have a beautiful place in the Hill Country perfect to see the upcoming eclipse. Their son, Nick, former BCHS athlete, is now a banker, married, and living in Arizona. By the way, Dana will be celebrating a birthday today. Happy birthday Dana.****Our friends at Brown Hearing Center will be celebrating their 62nd anniversary April 1 thru 12. We have known Dorothy and the late Lee Brown since the day they arrived in Orange County. Dot still hangs around the hearing center which is run by son-in-law Eddie Toohey and his boys. Great people to do business with. They have cared for my hearing for nearly 20 years. With hearing aids it's the service that really counts. You don't get that with over the counter cheapies.****I finally heard from our friend Van Choate. They are doing fine and have the last child in college at Sam Houston. Van's not doing much, Josette is making the living. (That what he says anyway.) She always was an active partner, teaching school and raising kids. Van was always the biggest kid of all but thankfully she's finally got him off of his motorcycle.****I've got to end this column for one more week. Thanks for your time and loyalty. Read us cover to cover and check out therecordlive.com. Take care and God bless.

Christus-Orange technician instructs OHS Health Science class

Guest speakers from Christus Orange and the Port Arthur Fire Department visited with Orangefield High School Health Science classes recently.

Angela Webb, RN, and Jeremy Kaskos, PAFD Captain, shared information on heart function and statistics on CPR survival rates. Students got hands-on practice of both adult and infant chest compressions, as well as the opportunity to learn about a new technology that is currently beginning to be used in our area.

The PAFD has a device called an AutoPulse that is used as part of resuscitative measures for patients undergoing cardiac arrest. The machine is able to provide chest compressions that are more effective than manual compressions and has been proven to increase survival rates following sudden cardiac arrest. The students were excited to learn about this device and see it in action.

OHS Patient Care Technician students visit Lamar

Orangefield High School Patient Care Technician students were able to get an in depth look at the Lamar University Nursing Department and campus this week. Along with learning about the in's and out's of the nursing program and application process, students also got a tour of the building which included a stop at their state of the art simulation lab. Students were able to get hands-on practice, listening to breath sounds and palpating pulses, as well as view a simulation in progress.

Cardinals, Bobcats on a roll in district ball

DAN PERRINE
Orange County Sports
For The Record

Baseball action in District 19-4A started Tuesday, March 12. The Bridge City Cardinals got a good jump in the district winning both games with the Silsbee Tigers.

On Tuesday the Cardinals rallied for a 4-3 win scoring two runs in the sixth inning at Silsbee. The pair of runs came home on back to back base on balls with the bases loaded.

Bridge City got good pitching from four Cardinal hurlers who allowed just one earned run. Max Pachar threw three solid innings, Owen Tucker went two frames, before Brayton Tregre pitched the sixth to get the win, and Austin Frederick got a save closing out the final inning.

Heavy rain on Friday postponed the second game until Saturday morning in Bridge City. The Cardinals followed a similar script to the first game using five pitchers to capture a 4-2 victory over the Tigers.

Landon Reeves got the start on the mound for the Cardinals and surrendered two runs only one of which was earned in four and a third innings. After a one out walk Reeves fielded a very good bunt down the first base line by the Tigers and his throw to first hit the batter in the helmet allowing the two Tigers to advance two bases. Both runners eventually scored to tie the game

2-2 in the top of the fifth inning.

The Cardinals had taken a two run lead in the third as Hutch Bearden doubled to left center and John Van Huis followed with an excellent bunt for a single. Hunter Ford hit a sacrifice fly to center to bring home Bearden and Van Huis made it 2-0 scoring on a wild pitch.

The game was won in the sixth just like it was on Tuesday with two runs for the Cardinals. Ford provided the big hit driving in the first of two runs before scoring the second himself to give Bridge City the lead 4-2 with an inning to play. Frederick relieved Pachar to get the final out in the seventh inning and

Bridge City softball undefeated through three

Two weeks into the district softball schedule the Bridge City Cardinals have moved to the top of the District 19-4A standings. The Cardinals were undefeated in their first three district games.

Bridge City opened with shutouts by pitcher Carson Fall against Silsbee and Little Cypress Mauriceville during the first week of the district schedule. The only district game scheduled for last week was actually played on Monday, March 18, because of rain on the previous Friday.

Playing at Vidor the Lady Cardinals defeated the Lady Pirates 3-1 for Bridge City's third straight win in district. The win by Bridge City set the stage for a showdown on Tuesday, March 19, at home for the Cardinals against the also undefeated Lumberton Lady Raiders who were averaging 13 runs a game in their four district victories prior to the contest with Bridge City.

The Cardinals travel to Jasper on Friday. Bridge City's next home game will be Tuesday, March 26, against the West Orange-Stark Lady Mustangs.

Little Cypress Mauriceville evened its district softball record at 1-1 on March 12 which was a special night for a ceremony naming the softball field "The Pete" to honor Pete Mota a longtime fan of high school sports in Orange County. Mota has supported all the athletes at LCM since 1975, and both his daughters graduated from Little Cypress Mauriceville High School.

The Lady Bears won the ball game that followed the ceremony to honor Pete Mota defeating the Vidor Lady Pirates 10-1. The game was much closer than the final score indicated.

Tessa Erickson started in the circle for the Lady Bears and escaped the first inning without allowing a run. Vidor had two runners on with two out when Erickson got a strikeout to end the threat.

In the bottom of the first LCM scored two runs without the benefit of a clean hit. Eden Frenzel and Jaceyln Cook reached base on infield grounders that were either bobbled or thrown away by the Lady Pirates. Frenzel came home on Cook's bunt that was fielded but the throw was wide of first base.

Batting after Cook was Lexis Moss who walked and was courtesy run for by Alex Pinder. Erickson grounded out which moved Cook to third base from where she scored the second run on a sacrifice fly to left by Ava White.

The Lady Bears' lead went to 3-0 in the second as Asia Woodson doubled to left center field. Woodson advanced to third on a passed ball and scored on a sacrifice fly by Frenzel to left field.

The pitchers Erickson and Sophia Aguirre for Vidor handcuffed the opposing batters in the middle innings. Erickson kept the Lady Pirates from scoring through the first four innings and Aguirre retired ten straight Lady Bears before Frenzel got their second hit of the game in the fifth inning.

The Lady Pirates threatened to score in the third after their leadoff batter Tylen Cassell reached on a single and an error, but Woodson gunned Cassell out at third when the Lady Pirate attempted to advance on a fly ball to right field.

In the fourth Vidor got a double to start the inning before Erickson struck out the next two batters. Frenzel then saved a run for LCM when she went

New Trout regulations take effect

OUTDOORS Capt. Chuck Uzzle For The Record

Chuck Uzzle

Texas saltwater anglers will once again see the limits change on speckled trout starting March 23rd after the Texas Parks and Wildlife commission passed the new proposal. In what has been described as an attempt to help the dwindling population of specks after the last 2 major freezes the commission approved a 3 fish limit with a 15" to 20" slot. The commission also approved keeping one fish over 30" as part of the daily limit. The new limit takes the place of the current regulations that allow for 5 fish between 15" and 25" with 1 one of those being over 25". Last November Louisiana changed their speckled trout limits also, they kept the 15 fish limit but increased their minimum size to 13" and put an upper end to the slot at 20". So you can keep 15 fish between 13 and 20 inches as well as having 2 of those 15 fish being over 20" as well. Louisiana also did away with guides being able to keep their limit of fish on charter trips as well which was already a law in Texas.

Now here's where it gets interesting or frustrating depending on where you stand. Due to the fact that Sabine lake is on the border of Texas and Louisiana there has always been a divide between many local fishermen about being able to keep Louisiana legal fish and coming back into Texas. There are plenty of local folks who exploited a very gray area in the law for many years in order to keep the more liberal limits from Louisiana. There are just as many folks who were heavily against that practice. It wasn't until the law changed to state that if you launched in Texas you must bring back Texas legal fish regardless if you had a Louisiana license. That law curbed most anglers from exploiting the perceived loophole and for the most part shut the majority of that practice down. Just like passing any law there will be those who are dead set on finding a way around it and that's exactly what a surprising number of anglers are willing to do.

If you take a ride to any of the boat launches on the Louisiana side of Sabine Lake you will find that the overwhelming percentage of license plates on the trucks and trailers are from Texas. These are the folks who are interested in numbers of fish and regardless of what anyone thinks they are legal to do so. Here in lies the problem, now that Texas has reduced their limits again for the entire state you can bet that there will be a major increase in fishing pressure as folks from the Galveston and Trinity areas will head east to Sabine so they can also fish using the much more liberal Louisiana limits. The last thing Sabine needs is increased pressure on a fish population that is still in recovery. During the Covid scare Sabine was virtually left untouched and that allowed the lake to rebound from the freeze in 2021. At this time Sabine has shown progress in both numbers and size of speckled trout and that trend should continue as long as nothing natural or man made gets in the way.

For all the good that TPWD hopes to accomplish on the rest of the Texas coast by changing the limits it could all go the opposite way for us here on Sabine. Until some sort of compromise, like the one on largemouth bass on Toledo Bend, can be made between Texas and Louisiana Sabine lake will be at the mercy of those who are willing to put conservation ahead of the need for numbers. As we enter into some of the better months for catching those bigger trophy class fish please remember to take good care of them before you let them go and release everything you don't intend to eat.

Gulf Coast Fishing Reports

This week's Texas Gulf Coast Fishing Reports was compiled by Texas Parks and Wildlife Department

• Sabine Lake

GOOD. 65 degrees. ICW rock piles are good for catches of trout, redfish and sheepshead with live shrimp under a popping cork. Speckled trout are good on the North Levee wall with popping cork under live shrimp, but best midday with any dark 5 inch plastics 1/16 ounce jighead. Redfish, drum and a few trout are being caught in the Sabine Channel shell flats on live shrimp under a popping cork. Strong winds have kept anglers in the wind protected areas.

Report by Captain Randy Foreman, Captain Randy's Guide Service Sabine Lake.

• Bolivar

GOOD. 60 degrees. It has been a beautiful week for fishing! More and more people are catching fish with the weather changes. The water has been beautiful as well. There were sightings of bioluminescence at night off the surf. Black drum and sheepshead are prevalent this week ahead of whiting, sand trout, redfish, speckled trout, plus the occasional pompano and alligator gar. Report by North Jetty Bait Camp. The surf is starting to hold some black drum, pompano, small shark and the occasional redfish. The North Jetty surfside is holding sheepshead and trout against rocks. Look for baitfish. Redfish in the channel hitting Carolina rigged mullet, shad, or crab. The end holds nice schools of trout and sheepshead. Report by Captain Raymond Wheatley, Tail Spotter Guide Service.

• Trinity Bay

FAIR. 67 degrees. Water is beginning to clear and fish are being found on shorelines, especially on the northwest side. Speckled trout bite has been good for those throwing soft plastics, scattered reds mixed in. Further north catches have been mixed. Anglers throwing live shrimp have caught reds, black drum, and speckled trout. Report by Captain David Dillman, Galveston Bay Charter Fishing.

Trinity Bay trout are picking up at a rapid pace using shrimp under a popping cork and saltwater WAC assassins in the rollover moon and people passion. The bite lasts a good bit of the morning, then transitions to reefs in about 2-4 feet of water. Redfish are feeding aggressively if you are in the right spot with live shrimp under a popping cork and gulp shrimp. Hint, look for better water next to your good spots. Drum are mixed in with the reds and sheepshead are around docks and piling being caught free lining shrimp. Pay attention to the weather as winds can ruin a fishing trip and be safe. Report by Captain Zackary Scott, Zack Attack Fishing.

• East Galveston Bay

GOOD. 67 degrees. Speckled trout are beginning to show on reefs near the shorelines. Scattered catches of redfish and black drum near the marsh and bayou drains. Best bite on soft plastics and live shrimp. Report by Captain David Dillman, Galveston Bay Charter Fishing.

Surface water temperature 65 degrees. Water clarity stained for the most part, with a couple areas with better clarity back in the marsh and protected shorelines. We are still catching fish back in the marsh and bayou areas, but have begun to catch a good number of trout on the shell flats. This redfish bite remains consistent in areas where good current flow has bait up against the shorelines and grass lines in 1-3 feet of water around oyster shells on Wac Attack Tails in Chartreuse, fished with 1/8 ounce heads, as well as weightless presentations.

The trout have preferred an erratic presentation with pauses, targeting deeper pockets close to channel bends/deeper drops with shell, triggering the most bites. Our experience has been that if you see bait flipping on the surface you will find some fish, if not, you are best to move on. The lighter the jig head the better, determined by the wind and current, and tails without paddles, performing the best. Fish Smack Popping corks with a 3 foot leader above an artificial shrimp lure has done equally well on our trips, with a hard pop and about a 5 second pause gathering the most strikes. Spring is getting close and fishing will continue to heat up as the water warms and the days continue to get longer. Report by Captain Jeff Brandon, Get the Net Guide Services, LLC. Yates Bayou drain is holding redfish against grass line on popping cork and shrimp. Hanna's Reef is great early in the day with twitching artificials or a popping cork with shrimp. Look for birds and slicks. small slicks could be just getting started. Watermelon smell in the air don't pass on them. Look for bait moving. Pepper Grove Cove to Moody's Pass holding fish. Smith Point to Moody National Wildlife. Redfish look for schools and birds. Report by Captain Raymond Wheatley, Tail Spotter Guide Service.

• Galveston Bay

SLOW. 68 degrees. Open bay waters are still off-colored. Sheepshead are still active in the gas wells for those fishing live shrimp on the bottom. A few speckled trout showing along shorelines with shell, along with some black drum. Best bite on live shrimp under corks. Upper Galveston bay seeing better numbers of speckled trout and bull reds have been schooling in open water. Report by Captain David Dillman, Galveston Bay Charter Fishing. The South Jetty is holding trout, sheepshead and redfish near the rocks on free-lined shrimp, or Carolina rigged float with live shrimp or soft plastic. SWP Holding Redfish from Pier and from Rocks. Sheepshead are in front of the concrete Seawall. The drains out of Swan Lake Campbell Slough holding sheepshead with an occasional Redfish. Report by Captain Raymond Wheatley, Tail Spotter Guide Service.

• West Galveston Bay

FAIR. 68 degrees. Speckled trout are scattered along the south shoreline. Deep structure holding some redfish and black drum and the occasional trout. Anglers drifting open bay reefs with soft plastics catching fair numbers of trout, bigger fish being caught by those wading the shorelines. Report by Captain David Dillman, Galveston Bay Charter Fishing. Greens Lake holding redfish against grass lines and by sandy shores early. ICW holding fish through greens cut and Carancahua cut holding trout and redfish with the amount of wind we are getting. Mecom Reef will have fish on it early up by rocks with artificial or live bait free-line or under cork. You'll need to find protected waters with bait moving around as the winds pick up. Report by Captain Raymond Wheatley, Tail Spotter Guide Service.

• Texas City

FAIR. 66 degrees. Good numbers of large oversized black drums coming off the rocks of the Texas City Dike and the Galveston jetties. The best bite has been on live halved crab. Sheepshead, slot redfish, keeper drum, and a few speckled trout being caught by anglers throwing live shrimp tight to the rocks. Report by Captain David Dillman, Galveston Bay Charter Fishing. The Dike is holding bull redfish along the rocks with scattered catches of drum and flounder. Dickinson Bayou holding some redfish and drum on popping cork and shrimp.

'The Lakes' Fishing

• Toledo Bend Fishing Report

GOOD. Water slightly stained; 63 degrees; 2.07 feet below pool. The bass are spawning with most of fish in 1-5 feet of water. Best baits are wacky worms, Senkos, or frogs. A few fish are still deep at around 8-15 feet deep. Those will bite a Texas or Carolina rigged worm or medium size crankbait. Big weather coming this weekend will make for a difficult bite but then back on track into next week. The Crappie bite is good in the creeks in 3-8 feet of water using jigs, roadrunners and minnows. The North end is better than the South end at this time. Report by Stephen Johnston, Johnston Fishing.

• Sam Rayburn

GOOD. Water stained; 64 degrees; 4.43 feet below pool. Bass are trying to spawn deeper than normal in 4-12 feet of water. Bass are hitting jigs, crankbaits and Texas rigs. Crappie are good on minnows and jigs in the creeks. Catfish are hitting cut bait off the bottom in the river channel. White bass are up the river hitting roadrunners and small rattletaps. Report by Captain Lynn Atkinson, Reel Um N Guide Service. Large groups of bass are making the push shallow in 3-15 feet in the grass and hydrilla. Bass are hitting Texas rig stick bait, lightweight Carolina rig, rattletap, and chatterbait.

earn another save. Cardinal Coach Chad Landry responded, "The defense has got to improve. We know that because we did have some errors in the two games. Just some young guys in their first district ball games a little nerves is expected, but it was good to come out on top."

This week the Bridge City Cardinals play their cross county rivals the Little Cypress Mauriceville Bears in two games. The Bears had the bye last week and traveled to Bridge City on Tuesday, March 19, before hosting the Cardinals at Don Gibbens Field on Friday.

The West Orange-Stark Mustangs opened their district schedule with the Vidor Pirates the other Orange County team in the district. Vidor swept the two games.

Bryce Bushelle threw five shutout innings for the Pirates on Tuesday to get the win 10-0 over the Mustangs in a game shortened to six innings. William Lee got the only hit for WOS. Daigan Venable had the big blow with a three run homer for Vidor. Saturday was a makeup game for the rainout on Friday at Vidor. The Pirates won 9-2 with Aiden Sims getting the win throwing three perfect innings with four strikeouts. The Mustangs got their two runs in the fourth inning as Zach Nation got the only hit in the game for WOS, Lee walked, and Blade Williams was hit by a pitch to load the bases. Nation scored on a ground out by Grayson Gregory and Lee came home on a wild pitch.

West Orange-Stark has two games with the Lumberton Raiders this week. Tuesday's game was at Lumberton and on Friday the Raiders come to Ronnie Anderson Park.

The Orangefield Bobcats had a very good week winning both of their games to improve to 2-1 in District 21-3A action. The Bobcats played on Saturday after the rain on Friday and defeated the Warren Warriors 8-0 as Bryce Tait threw a no hitter. Tait issued just two walks with 10 strikeouts in his seven innings of outstanding work on the mound at Warren. Providing the offense for Orangefield were Kane Smith, Caleb Fregia, Camden Fountain, and Matthew Johnson each with multiple hits. Johnson drove home two runs in the fifth to help break the game open. Earlier on Tuesday, March 12, the Bobcats blew out the East Chambers Buccaneers 19-2 at Orangefield. Smith and Fregia were offensive leaders with multiple hits and four runs batted in apiece. Cameron Dearing and Logan Cheek both had two hits in the runoff for Orangefield. Kaleb Menard pitched three and a third shutout innings for the win allowing one hit and striking out six Buccaneers.

Orangefield played at Buna on Tuesday, March 19. The Bobcats return home for a game with the Hardin Hornets on Friday night.

into shallow center to snare a liner that appeared to have base hit written all over it.

The Lady Pirates broke through in the top of the fifth inning. A hit batter and a pair of two out singles produced a run for Vidor that made the score 3-1 with two innings to play.

The score was still 3-1 when Little Cypress Mauriceville came to bat in the bottom of the sixth. White was hit by a pitch with one out to start a Lady Bear rally.

Ava Wright singled to center and Keylie Washburn lined a base hit to left on which White tried to score, but was thrown out at the plate on a very close play. The Vidor catcher then tried to throw out Wright at third base but her throw went into left field allowing Wright and Washburn to come home to give LCM a 5-1 advantage.

The hits kept coming for the Lady Bears as Woodson singled, Ella Stephenson doubled, Frenzel doubled, Moss tripled after a walk to Cook, and Erickson singled. Seven Lady Bears scored in the sixth to stretch the LCM lead to 10-1 going to the seventh.

Erickson got the win throwing a complete game. Tessa in her seven innings yielded just one run on six hits, with no walks, two hit batters, and struck out seven Lady Pirates.

"I tell my girls every time we step on the field for this district it's going to be a scrap, and we have to bring our best game. We were not really killing the ball early on, but I know my girls. They never lost their heads, they stayed calm, and they put the bat to the ball in the sixth inning to come out on top," Coach Dena Adkins reminded after the game.

Strong pitching and solid defense were the other keys to the Lady Bear win. Adkins described, "Tessa stayed locked in and she had great defense behind her with probably one of the best outfielders I've gotten to coach in a long time. The Lady Bears had Tessa's back when Vidor had runners in scoring position her defense was there to stop it."

Rain postponed Little Cypress Mauriceville's next game to Saturday and the location was changed to The Pete after originally being scheduled to be played at Lumberton. The Lady Raiders pounded out an 11-10 win over LCM. Lexis Moss of the Lady Bears drove in seven runs hitting two homeruns and a double.

Little Cypress Mauriceville (1-2) played at Jasper on Tuesday, March 19. The Lady Bears play at West Orange-Stark on Friday before entertaining Silsbee next Tuesday at The Pete.

The West Orange-Stark Lady Mustangs were looking for their first district win with Jasper on Tuesday, March 12. The Lady Mustangs lost in three innings 18-0 with Alexia Guyton and Christian Berry getting the only two hits for WOS.

Last Friday was a bye for the Lady Mustangs before they played at Silsbee on Tuesday of this week. West Orange-Stark (0-3) plays its next game at home on Friday, March 22, against Little Cypress Mauriceville.

The Orangefield Lady Bobcats (4-1) have won four straight District 21-3A games. The last two triumphs have been very impressive with the Lady Bobcats outscoring their two opponents thirty to nothing.

The Orangefield Lady Bobcats won 13-0 over East Chambers on Tuesday, March 12. Abigail Curphey got the win in the circle going four innings giving up three hits. Charlee Sanches threw a hitless fifth inning to finish the game for Orangefield.

The hitting star was Paris Becker ripping three hits including a double, with three runs batted in, and a run scored. Curphey doubled and drove in four runs. Aubree Beck reached base three times as did Hallee Becker and both scored three runs. It was a team effort for the Lady Bobcat bats as Sanches, Greenlea Oldham, Abby Broussard, Paisley Reeves, Aubrey Sonnier, and Alysén Vincent all accounted for one or more runs in the blowout.

Longtime LCM supporter Pete Mota was honored on March 12 with the softball field at the high school being named "The Pete." RECORD PHOTO: Dan Perrine Rain postponed Orangefield's next game until Monday at Warren. It was more or less a repeat of the previous game with the Lady Bobcats rolling 17-0 in five innings.

Curphey and Sanches combined to throw the shutout. Abigail struck out five in three innings of pitching and Sanches had a pair of strikeouts in her two innings in the circle while both surrendered a hit apiece to the Warren hitters.

Sanches socked a double and a single while scoring three runs and driving in three. Aubree Beck tripled, singled, and walked twice to score two runs and drive home two more. Paris Becker banged out a pair of hits including a double scored three runs and knocked in two runs. It really was a hit parade for all the Lady Bobcats as Abby Broussard, Abigail Curphey, Audrey Sonnier, Hallee Becker, Greenlea Oldham, Alysén Vincent, Paisley Reeves, and Brennah Lee also accounted for Orangefield runs.

Orangefield played at Buna on Tuesday, March 19. The Lady Bobcats play again at home on Friday, March 22, against the Hardin Lady Hornets.

Bridge City had a defending state champion in girls powerlifting competing for back to back titles on Friday, March 15. Hallie Bearden actually lifted the same amount of weight as her closest competitor in the event, but Hallie had to settle for second place because she had a body weight one pound heavier than her opponent.

Bearden a junior at Bridge City High School competed in the 123-pound weight class at the competition on Friday. Last year she won the 114-pound weight class lifting a total of 820 pounds in the three powerlifting categories.

In Friday's meet Bearden lifted a total of 870 pounds with 325 lbs. in the Squat, 230 lbs. in the Bench, and 315 lbs. in the Deadlift. Hallie exceeded her totals from last year by at least thirty pounds in the Squat and Bench, but fell a little short of her mark from last year in the Deadlift which has frequently been Bearden's best lift.

Having been a leading power lifter since her freshman year has resulted in Bearden holding some state and national records for her previous weight class. Hallie will be working hard over the next year to regain a state title.

Solar Eclipse: SE Texas will see sun like crescent moon April 8

Adam Zuvanich
Houston Public Media
University of Houston

Southeast Texas will not go dark on the afternoon of April 8, when other parts of Texas to the north and west will experience a total solar eclipse.

But the region will come close to seeing the moon completely cover up the sun, according to Angela Speck, a professor at the University of Texas at San Antonio who serves as the chair of its physics and astronomy department.

The sun should appear between 93%-95% covered up depending on where you are within the Houston region, Speck said, noting that locales northwest of the city will see more significant coverage compared to those to the southeast. During the annular solar eclipse on Oct. 14, when the moon was farther from the Earth and a "ring of fire" was visible to those in the path of totality, Speck said those in the Houston area saw up to 86% of the sun being blocked out.

"It's going to look kind of like a crescent moon," Speck said. "If you block out enough of the sun, what's left is just a crescent of it. That's pretty cool, and it's going to look like a fairly skinny crescent."

The peak of the upcoming eclipse is scheduled for about 1:40 p.m. in the Houston area, according to Speck, who said the sun will appear partially covered for a span of about three hours. The moon and sun will appear to first touch at about 12:20 p.m., she said, with the eclipse event ending at about 3 p.m.

Speck said no one should look directly at an eclipse without special glasses that meet the ISO 12312-2 safety standard, adding that those who obtained glasses for the October eclipse can use them again in April. For those with or without viewing glasses, Speck said there are other ways to enjoy the rare sights associated with an eclipse.

Crescent shapes will appear in shadows created by tree leaves – and in any instance in which sunlight passes through a hole in an object – and reflective disco balls also could come in handy.

"If you take a disco ball outside during a partial eclipse, all the little spots on the disco ball will be the shape of the sun," Speck said. "They will be that moon shape."

But as long as you're in

The upcoming solar eclipse will be the second within six months that is viewable from Texas, which will not see another solar eclipse for two decades. On April 8, the sun should appear to be about 93%-95% covered up to those in the SE Texas.

Houston or close to it, your view of the eclipse likely won't be as spectacular as it could be from other parts of the state. Speck said areas north and west of Austin and San Antonio are projected to be in the path of totality, where the daytime sky will temporarily turn dark.

And because those are densely populated metropolitan areas that already expecting an influx of eclipse-seeking visitors, a day trip to a small town in the path of totality might be more feasible. Among those options are Dew, which is along Interstate 45 about 145 miles north of Houston, and Hammond, which is about 135 miles to the northwest along State Highway 6.

When the moon blocks out the sun, the sun's outer atmosphere, or corona, appears and looks like a white mist in the sky.

"If they can find the time to get in the path," Speck said of Houstonians, "it's totally worth it."

That's partly because, while Texans are getting two solar eclipses within a span of about six months, the viewing opportunity on April 8 will be their last for quite a while. Speck said the next time a solar eclipse will be viewable from the state will be in 2045, and that will apply only to the very northernmost part of Texas.

The next solar eclipse that will be viewed here around in 2200 when the city is projected to be just southeast of the path of totality.

"So people should make the most of it while they can," Speck said.

5 Ways Palm Sunday Reminds Us Christ Is King

Debbie McDaniel
Crosswalk Newsletter

What Is Palm Sunday?

Palm Sunday is the day we remember and celebrate the day Jesus entered Jerusalem as Savior and King. As Jesus rode a donkey into Jerusalem, a large crowd gathered and laid palm branches and their cloaks across the road, giving Jesus royal treatment. The hundreds of people shouted, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

Palm Sunday is the day we remember and celebrate the day Jesus entered Jerusalem as Savior and King. As Jesus rode a donkey into Jerusalem, a large crowd gathered and laid palm branches and their cloaks across the road, giving Jesus royal treatment. The hundreds of people shouted, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

Palm Sunday is a moveable holiday that changes yearly based on Lent and the spring equinox. Many churches celebrate Palm Sunday by waving palm branches, singing traditional hymns, and making crosses out of palm fronds. But while this is a triumphal entry, it is Jesus' first step toward His death.

This year, Palm Sunday will be on Sunday, March 24, 2024. Find more dates of Holy Week in 2024.

The Palm Sunday Triumphal Entry Bible Story

As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them, "Go to the village ahead of you, and at once you will find a donkey tied there, with her colt by her. Untie them and bring them to me. If anyone says anything to you, say that the Lord needs them, and he will send them right away." This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet: "Say to Daughter Zion, 'See, your king comes to you, gentle and riding on a donkey, and on a colt, the foal of a donkey.'" The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them. They brought the donkey and the colt and placed their cloaks on them for Jesus to sit on. A large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed shouted, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Hosanna in the highest heaven!" When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, "Who is this?" The crowd answered, "This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee."

On the heels of Palm Sunday, as we begin this Holy Week, may we be reminded of its significance and value for our lives today. That very important day in history when Jesus began His journey towards the cross.

Yet maybe amid busy lives, on the heels of Spring Break, or in all of the upcoming thoughts about Easter, the real meaning of it may, even unintentionally, get missed.

His Word reveals such great truths in every part of this story. These truths draw us closer to Christ, reminding us that He alone is King.

Five Ways Palm Sunday Reminds Us Christ Is King

• 1. God's Word tells us the people cut palm branches, waved them in the air, and laid them out on the ground before Jesus as He rode into the city. The palm branch represented goodness and victory and was symbolic of the final victory He would soon fulfill over death.

"O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?" 1 Cor. 15:55

• 2. Jesus chose to ride in on a donkey, which directly fulfilled the Old Testament prophecy of Zech. 9:9. In Biblical times, it was common for kings or important people to arrive by a procession riding on a donkey.

The donkey symbolized peace, so those who chose to ride them showed that they came with peaceful intentions. Jesus even then reminded us that He is the Prince of Peace.

saalem and saw the city, he wept over it, and said, "If you, even you, had only known on this day what would bring you peace--but now it is hidden from your eyes." Luke 19:41-42

"Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your king is coming to you; righteous and having salvation is he, humble and mounted on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey." Zech. 9:9

• 3. When the people shouted "Hosanna!" they were hailing Christ as King. That word means "save now," and though in their minds, they waited for an earthly king, God had a different way of bringing true salvation to all who would trust in Him.

"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD!" Ps. 118:26

"If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." Rom. 10:9

• 4. The Bible says that Jesus wept for Jerusalem. Amid the moment's praise, He knew in His heart that it wouldn't be long before these same people would turn their backs on Him, betray Him, and crucify Him. His heart broke with the reality of how much they needed a Savior.

"As he approached Jeru-

• 5. Palm Sunday reminds us that the reign of Christ is far greater than any man's mind could ever conceive or plan. Man looked for someone to fight their battles in the present-day world. Yet God had the ultimate plan of sending His Son to fight the final battle over death. This is the greatness of why we celebrate this week. We can be free of death because of Christ's ultimate sacrifice.

"Jesus said to her, 'I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in Me will live even if he dies,'" John 11:25

We have so much to be grateful for this week. The enemy knows that, and you can bet He will do everything he can to distract us from this Holy Week's true meaning. Don't let him win.

In this Holy Week, may God direct our thoughts and attention towards what matters most, Jesus Christ our King...

Let's focus on worshipping our Lord, thanking Him for the gift of His sacrifice, celebrating the power of the Resurrection, and the new life found in Him alone. Grace.

"Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!" 2 Cor. 9:15
